Re: United States v. Mark Edward Wetsch
Criminal No. 12-45 (SRN/JJG)

Dear Ms. Aanstad:

Previously I requested historical subject matter from you regarding bank robberies that have occurred in Minnesota dating back to 2007 to present. At a subsequent hearing before Magistrate Graham, Mr. Ueland successfully argued against providing me with said subject matter on the grounds of relevancy. Consequently, the judiciary granted an order denying my request.

I acknowledge my request was too broad. Therefore, I am now requesting specific subject matter the Government, specifically the Federal Bureau of Investigation, has in its control, with respect to bank robberies that occurred in Minnesota specific to the year(s) 2011 and 2012.

I am requesting all bank robbery subject matter that pertains to said robberies where the supposed suspect was a Caucasian male and may or may not have wore a black mask while committing the transgression.

Since my indictment charges me with bank robberies in 2011 and 2012, the requested subject matter is material, relevant and necessary to allow me to prepare an adequate defense with respect to the upcoming criminal trial in the aforementioned case.

Thank you for your immediate time and attention to this salient asking.

Sincerely,

Mark Edward Wetsch
